1. The _____ that the Lord has given to His Servant (the Messiah) to accomplish is a glorious, transformational work that extends to all the nations of the world.

- a. The Lord's righteous work of salvation is absolutely _____ to be accomplished because of who He is and what He has done.
- b. The Lord's righteous work of salvation is accomplished with a _____ strength and the glory clearly belongs to the Lord.

2. All the earth is _____ to sing aloud in praise of the Lord for His great work of salvation.

- a. The Lord has given His people, in every nation, the ability and the _____ to sing to Him.

"Music is a gift and grace of God, not an invention of _____. Thus it drives out the devil and makes people cheerful. ... The devil, the originator of sorrowful anxieties and restless troubles, flees before the sound of music almost as much as before the Word of God." - Martin Luther

- b. Throughout Scripture the people of God _____ to the Lord as a significant part of their relationship with Him.
- c. It is the life transforming work of salvation that enables believers to sing a _____ song to the Lord.

"It is vital that we sing together. The songs we sing together are lifelines that draw each of us back to the heart of the King we serve and the priorities of the kingdom we are members of." - Keith & Kristyn Getty

"Our generation of God's people will leave our songs behind. Our singing casts a light after we are gone. We each bear responsibility in the singing _____ we leave behind us. We should sing with a mind toward those younger than us who are listening in and learning from us." - Keith & Kristyn Getty

- d. The singing of God's people recognizes the victorious work of the Lord as He _____ the stubborn resistance and attacks of His enemies by His powerful grace.

"There is nothing as uniquely _____ to people as God's people singing." - Cliff Barrows
