Of Whom the Story is Told

Luke 2:1-21

1. King David: David the savior was a precursor to the great Savior.
2. Joseph: Joseph remained faithful to his duties amidst frequent hardships.
3. Mary: Mary carefully pondered how the unfolding plan of the Savior intersected with her life.
4. The Shepherds: Understanding their great need for a Savior, the shepherds could not contain their rejoicing.
5. The angels: The angels rejoiced in the wisdom of salvation's plan.
6. The Father and the Son: The incarnation showed the love of the Father and the joy of Jesus in redeeming mankind.

2 Chronicles 7:14

If my people who are called by my name humble themselves, and pray and seek my face and turn from their wicked ways, then I will hear from heaven and will forgive their sin and heal their land.
