Introduction:

In the 6th chapter of 2nd Chronicles God the Holy Ghost gives us King Solomon's prayer at the dedication of the temple in Jerusalem. Solomon spent seven years building the temple. The time came for it to be dedicated and opened for the service of God and his people. — What a dedication and opening it was!

WILL GOD DWELL
WITH MEN ON THE EARTH?

2 Chronicles 6:18

As we read this portion of Scripture, we should have the eyes of our hearts and minds stedfastly fixed on our glorious Solomon, the Lord Jesus Christ, whom the the king of Israel here portrays. It is Christ alone who is the Intercessor, the High Priest, the Advocate, and the King of his people. By virtue of his blood and righteousness alone the favor of God is obtained.

In all the possible cases (of error, infirmity, iniquity, transgression, and sin) Solomon enumerated in his prayer, he asked that Jehovah's eye be fixed on the Lord Jesus Christ, who was typified by the temple he built. Oh, that our souls might be enabled to follow the spirit of Solomon's prayer, that the Lord God of Israel would own his house, hear and accept his people and our prayers, remember his covenant, and be merciful, gracious, compassionate, and forgiving! Oh, that he would graciously and ever turn our hearts and the eye of faith to Christ, causing us to pray without ceasing, always directing our supplications through him!

Reading the chapter this way, with spiritual, God-given eyes of God-given faith, we see gospel grace running through every word. The whole sum and substance of Solomon's prayer is Jesus Christ crucified!

- Redemption by His Blood!
- Righteousness by His Obedience!
- Forgiveness by His Mercy!
- Salvation by His Grace!

Oh Lord God, the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, in the contemplation of your rich salvation in Christ, we take the language of Solomon and say, "Arise, O Lord God, into your resting place! Blessed be the Lord our God who in Christ heaps upon poor, needy sinners all "the sure mercies of David."

493 years after the children of Israel came out of the land of Egypt and 17 years after his father David had gone to Glory, Solomon finished building the temple in Zion. It took him seven years to build it. — Then, when the temple was finished and the Ark of the Covenant had been brought into the most holy place, the Lord God condescended to come into the temple Solomon had built. And the glory of the Lord filled the house of the Lord! — Then, we read in 2nd Chronicles 6:12-14...

(2 Chronicles 6:12-14) “And he stood before the altar of the LORD in the presence of all the congregation of Israel, and spread forth his hands: (13) For Solomon had made a brasen scaffold, of five cubits long, and five cubits broad, and three cubits high, and had set it in the midst of the court: and upon it he stood, and kneeled down upon his knees before all the congregation of Israel, and spread forth his hands toward heaven, (14) And said, O LORD God of Israel, there is no God like thee in the heaven, nor in the earth; which keepest covenant, and shewest mercy unto thy servants, that walk before thee with all their hearts.”

WILL GOD DWELL
WITH MEN ON THE EARTH?

2 Chronicles 6:18

He extolled the Lord God our God, the Triune Jehovah (Father, Son, and Holy Ghost) as the only true and living God. He declared that there is no God but our God, none besides him, none like him, none to be compared to him.

- In His Dominion — He is the Supreme Sovereign of the universe!
- In His Dependability — He is the covenant keeping God of his people!
- In His Discrimination — He is merciful, gracious, and good! — Merciful to Sinners! — Gracious to the Guilty! — Good to His Elect!
- He is faithful and true, fulfilling all his promises to all his people! — There is no god like the Lord our God...

HIS DWELLING

Yet, this great and glorious God, who inhabits eternity, condescended to come into the temple and to dwell in the midst of his people upon the earth! To

Solomon this was a matter of utter astonishment. —
Read verses 15-18.

(2 Chronicles 6:15-18) “Thou which hast kept with thy servant David my father that which thou hast promised him; and spakest with thy mouth, and hast fulfilled it with thine hand, as it is this day. (16) Now therefore, O LORD God of Israel, keep with thy servant David my father that which thou hast promised him {God promised David — a house — a kingdom — and a man to sit on his throne forever!}, saying, There shall not fail thee a man in my sight to sit upon the throne of Israel; yet so that thy children take heed to their way to walk in my law, as thou hast walked before me. (17) Now then, O LORD God of Israel, let thy word be verified, which thou hast spoken unto thy servant David. (18) But will God in very deed dwell with men on the earth? Behold, heaven and the heaven of heavens cannot contain thee; how much less this house which I have built!”

WILL GOD DWELL

2 Chronicles 6:18

UTTER AMAZEMENT

This question, “Will God in very deed dwell with men on the earth?” is not an expression of doubt or unbelief, but an expression of utter amazement! — Will God, who dwells on high, who humbles himself to look upon things in heaven and stoops to consider things upon the earth, will this great and glorious God condescend to dwell with men upon the earth? That is utterly astonishing! Yet, it is true.

This astonishing fact is my subject. — “Will God in very deed dwell with men on the earth?” — That’s my subject. — WILL GOD DWELL WITH MEN ON THE EARTH?

Proposition: The condescension of the eternal, almighty, holy, and sovereign God to dwell with men upon earth is an astonishing act of grace.

WILL GOD DWELL
WITH MEN ON THE EARTH?

2 Chronicles 6:18

Divisions: Let me show you four astonishing facts revealed in this text of Scripture. He who came to dwell with men on the earth is...

1. The Infinite God.
2. The Incarnate God.
3. The Indwelling God.
4. The Immaculate God.

THE INFINITE GOD

1st — Here is the first thing that strikes me. — This One who came to dwell with men upon the earth in the temple at Jerusalem is the Lord God omnipotent, omniscient, omnipresent, — the infinite God! On that great day, when the temple was built at Jerusalem, when the ark of God was brought into the most holy place, for the first time in history God came down not to visit men upon the earth but to dwell with men upon the earth!

It is amazing that he should do so, because God is immense, the infinite God of Glory. This was

WILL GOD DWELL
WITH MEN ON THE EARTH?

2 Chronicles 6:18

astonishing to Solomon. — “Behold, the heaven and heaven of heavens cannot contain thee!” Remember, I am talking to you about God. — Not Zeus! — Not Allah! — Not the Great Spirit! — But God —

- God who fills heaven and earth with his presence,
- God who cannot be contained by time and space,
- God the infinite, omnipresent, immutable, eternal God!
- God came to dwell with men upon the earth!

God is omnipresent. He is everywhere: in heaven, earth, and hell. There is no fleeing from his presence. (Psalm 138:7-12).

(Psalms 139:7-12) “Whither shall I go from thy spirit? or whither shall I flee from thy presence? (8) If I ascend up into heaven, thou art there: if I make my bed in hell, behold, thou art there. (9) If I take the wings of the morning, and dwell in the uttermost parts of the sea; (10) Even there shall thy hand lead me, and thy right hand shall hold me. (11) If I say, Surely the darkness shall cover me; even the night shall be light about me. (12) Yea, the darkness hideth not from thee; but the night shineth as the day: the darkness and the light are both alike to thee.”

God is everywhere by his power, upholding, maintaining, sustaining all things and performing with his own hands the works of his eternal purpose in all places. God is everywhere by his providence, taking care of and governing all his creatures, executing in all places at the same time his everlasting decrees. God is everywhere by his omniscience, beholding all things, all places, all events, all people, even the secrets of the hearts of all men at one time (Psalm 139:1-6). — “The eyes of the LORD are in every place, beholding the evil and the good.” (Proverbs 15:3).

(Psalms 139:1-6) “O LORD, thou hast searched me, and known me. (2) Thou knowest my downsitting and mine uprising, thou

WILL GOD DWELL
WITH MEN ON THE EARTH?

2 Chronicles 6:18

understandest my thought afar off. (3) Thou compassest my path and my lying down, and art acquainted with all my ways. (4) For there is not a word in my tongue, but, lo, O LORD, thou knowest it altogether. (5) Thou hast beset me behind and before, and laid thine hand upon me. (6) Such knowledge is too wonderful for me; it is high, I cannot attain unto it.”

Yet, this immense, omnipresent, omniscient, omnipotent Lord God came to dwell upon the earth. When we consider who he is, we might well cry with Solomon, — “Will God in very deed dwell with men on the earth?”

- Heaven is his throne. The earth is his footstool. But this great King of glory came to dwell upon his footstool!
- The earth, this round ball of water and clay, is a suitable habitation for man and beast. — “The heaven, even the heavens, are the LORD’S: but the earth hath he given to the children of men”

WILL GOD DWELL
WITH MEN ON THE EARTH?

2 Chronicles 6:18

(Psalm 115:16). Yet, God came to dwell upon the earth!

This fact is even more astonishing when we remember that the earth is defiled, corrupted, and cursed by sin (Genesis 3:17-18).

(Genesis 3:17-18) “And unto Adam he said, Because thou hast hearkened unto the voice of thy wife, and hast eaten of the tree, of which I commanded thee, saying, Thou shalt not eat of it: cursed is the ground for thy sake; in sorrow shalt thou eat of it all the days of thy life; (18) Thorns also and thistles shall it bring forth to thee; and thou shalt eat the herb of the field.”

The earth is marked for burning. It is “reserved to fire against the Day of Judgment and perdition of ungodly men.” (2 Peter 3:7). Yet, God who is holy came to dwell upon this sin-cursed earth!

WILL GOD DWELL
WITH MEN ON THE EARTH?

2 Chronicles 6:18

The inhabitants of the earth, among whom God came to dwell, are the fallen, depraved, sinful, cursed sons and daughters of Adam. When the Lord God condescended, time and again, to look upon the inhabitants of the earth, he declared, — “They are all gone aside, they are all together become filthy: there is none that doeth good, no not one” (Psalm 14:3; 53:1-3). It would be a marvelous act of condescension and mercy for God to...

- look upon man on the earth with tolerance.
- talk to a fallen, sinful man (Genesis 17:3).
- visit fallen man on the earth (Psalm 8:4).

Yet, our text declares that God who is purity, holiness, and light, came to dwell with men upon the earth! That is simply astonishing!

Surely, if this great God came to dwell with men upon the earth in Solomon’s temple, he came not to receive something from man, but to do something great and good for man. He came to bestow something grand and glorious upon man, which man could not have until God came to “dwell

WILL GOD DWELL
WITH MEN ON THE EARTH?

2 Chronicles 6:18

with men on the earth!” But that temple in which the Lord God appeared in Solomon’s day 3000 years ago is gone forever. So, it is obvious that the presence of God dwelling in Solomon’s temple foreshadowed and prefigured greater things yet to come, which are even more astonishing!

THE INCARNATE GOD

2nd — So, second, I want you to see that our text refers to the marvelous incarnation of our Lord Jesus Christ and his dwelling on the earth to work out righteousness, redemption, and salvation for his people. “Will God” the Son, our Lord Jesus Christ, “in very deed dwell with men on the earth?” Indeed, he has, and he does, and he will. This is marvelous in our eyes! This is astonishing (2 Corinthians 8:9).

(2 Corinthians 8:9) “For ye know the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, that, though he was rich, yet for your sakes he became poor, that ye

WILL GOD DWELL
WITH MEN ON THE EARTH?
2 Chronicles 6:18

through his poverty might be rich.”

Jesus Christ is God. Yet he tabernacled upon the earth in our nature (John 1:1, 14).

(John 1:1) “In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God.”

(John 1:14) “And the Word was made flesh, and dwelt among us, (and we beheld his glory, the glory as of the only begotten of the Father,) full of grace and truth.”

Moses’ tabernacle was a type of Christ’s human nature. His humanity is “the true tabernacle which the Lord pitched, and not man” (Hebrews 8:2). The temple which Solomon built, into which God came and dwelt, was also a type of our Savior’s humanity. He said, “Destroy this temple (referring to his body) and in three days I will raise it up” (John 2:19).

- Christ is “the true God” (1 John 5:20).

WILL GOD DWELL
WITH MEN ON THE EARTH?

2 Chronicles 6:18

- He is “the great God” (Titus 2:13).
- He is “the brightness of the Father’s glory, and the express image of his Person” (Hebrews 1:3; Philippians 2:5-6; Colossians 2:9).
- He is the Maker of all things, our Creator (Colossians 1:16-17).
- Jesus Christ, our Savior, is “over all, God blessed forever” (Romans 9:5).

He is high above all nations, great above all creatures, and exalted above all creation
(Philippians 2:9-11; Hebrews 1:1-6).

(Philippians 2:9-11) “Wherefore God also hath highly exalted him, and given him a name which is above every name: (10) That at the name of Jesus every knee should bow, of things in heaven, and things in earth, and things under the earth; (11) And that every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father.”

WILL GOD DWELL
WITH MEN ON THE EARTH?

2 Chronicles 6:18

(Hebrews 1:1-6) “God, who at sundry times and in divers manners spake in time past unto the fathers by the prophets, (2) Hath in these last days spoken unto us by his Son, whom he hath appointed heir of all things, by whom also he made the worlds; (3) Who being the brightness of his glory, and the express image of his person, and upholding all things by the word of his power, when he had by himself purged our sins, sat down on the right hand of the Majesty on high; (4) Being made so much better than the angels, as he hath by inheritance obtained a more excellent name than they. (5) For unto which of the angels said he at any time, Thou art my Son, this day have I begotten thee? And again, I will be to him a Father, and he shall be to me a Son? (6) And again, when he bringeth in the firstbegotten into the world, he saith, And let all the angels of God worship him.”

(Colossians 2:9-10) “For in him dwelleth all the fulness of the Godhead bodily. (10) And ye are

WILL GOD DWELL
WITH MEN ON THE EARTH?

2 Chronicles 6:18

complete in him, which is the head of all principality and power.”

All the angels of God are called upon to worship him because he is their Creator. All men, good and bad, are subject to him. He dwells, and always has dwelt, in the highest heaven. He “rideth upon the heavens of heavens, over all God, blessed forever” (Psalm 68:32-35). Therefore, he is called, “the Lord from heaven.” (1 Corinthians 15:47). Christ Jesus is that One who came down from heaven to do his Father’s will. Yet, he was in heaven while he was here upon the earth doing his Father’s will (John 3:13).

(John 3:13) “And no man hath ascended up to heaven, but he that came down from heaven, even the Son of man which is in heaven.”

He never ceased to be God, though he dwelt upon the earth in human flesh! This is an amazing fact — Jesus Christ, who is God, the Maker of all things, the

WILL GOD DWELL
WITH MEN ON THE EARTH?

2 Chronicles 6:18

Ruler of all things, dwelling in the highest heaven, “over all God, blessed forever,” has come to dwell with men on the earth! — “Will God in very deed dwell with men on the earth?” Yes! He most certainly will; and he certainly has! But why? — Why did God come to dwell upon the earth in human flesh? What was the purpose of the incarnation?

Christ came into this world to fulfil the covenant he made with the Father on behalf of his elect before the world began (Hebrews 10:5-17). It was proposed to him in the everlasting covenant that he should assume our nature, dwell upon earth with mortal men as a man, bring in everlasting righteousness for his chosen, and put away the sins of his elect by the satisfaction of justice by the sacrifice of himself. He agreed to it, and said, — “Lo, I come; in the volume of the book it is written of me; I delight to do thy will, O my God” (Psalm 40:7-8). He came in our humanity, he came into the world, he came to dwell

WITH MEN ON THE EARTH?

2 Chronicles 6:18

among men, to do his Father's will, to obtain redemption for lost sinners.

This was proposed; and to this he agreed.

Therefore, he is represented as one, from eternity, rejoicing in the habitable parts of the earth, in which he had agreed to dwell, where those people would dwell for whom he became a Surety and a Savior. And from everlasting, his delights were with the sons of men (Proverbs 8:22-31).

We have many examples of his appearing on the earth long before he dwelt here.

- In Eden, Immediately After the Fall (Genesis 3:8-15)
- To Abraham in the Plains of Mamre (Genesis 18)
- To Jacob as the Angel of the Lord (Genesis 32:24-30)
- To Moses in the Burning Bush (Exodus 3)
- To Manoah and His Wife, Declaring His Name to be "Secret and Wonderful" (Judges 13)

WILL GOD DWELL
WITH MEN ON THE EARTH?

2 Chronicles 6:18

- To Isaiah (Isaiah 6)
- With the Three Hebrews (Daniel 3)

These appearances of Christ were pledges and tokens of God's promise, assuring his people that God would "in very deed dwell with men on the earth." They indicated the pleasure and delight the Son of God had in the work he would do, desiring and anticipating the time when he could come to dwell with and redeem his people.

Besides these pre-incarnate appearances of Christ, which gave hints of our Lord's coming, there were numerous, clear prophecies of it.

- "The Seed of the Woman" (Genesis 3:15)
- "My Redeemer" (Job 19:25)
- "His Salvation" (Psalm 85:9-13)
- "A Virgin shall Conceive" (Isaiah 7:14)
- "Immanuel" (Isaiah 7:14)
- "A Child Born, A Son Given" (Isaiah 9:6)
- "The Substitute" (Isaiah 53)

WILL GOD DWELL
WITH MEN ON THE EARTH?

2 Chronicles 6:18

Then, in the fulness of time, according to all these hints and prophecies, Christ came into the world!

— “The Word was made flesh, and dwelt among us!”

“He came not by any change of place, for that is impossible; but by taking to his divine Person the human nature. For we are not to entertain such gross sentiments of him, as though, when he became incarnate, he moved from place to place, from heaven to earth; for even when he had assumed our nature and dwelt among us, he was in the bosom of the Father.” — John Gill

Be sure you understand this. — Though the Son of God assumed and took into everlasting union with himself our nature, though “the Word was made flesh, and dwelt among us,” he never ceased to be God!

“Will God in very deed dwell with men on the earth?” This is indeed astonishing! That One by

WILL GOD DWELL
WITH MEN ON THE EARTH?

2 Chronicles 6:18

whom the earth was made has come to dwell on the earth he made. — “He was in the world, and the world was made by him, and the world knew him not” (John 1:10). Compared to him, the whole earth and all its inhabitants “are as nothing, less than nothing, and vanity” (Isaiah 40:17). He sits upon the circle of the earth, and all its inhabitants are grasshoppers before him. Yet, he came, the great God, to dwell among men!

The wonder of the incarnation only increases as we contemplate it. Look what the Son of God came into the world to do. He came to work out the salvation of his people, to seek and to save that which was lost. He came to save lost sinners, lost in Adam, so lost that they could never find their way back to God. Christ came to save sinners, the worst of sinners, the chief of sinners! He came and dwelt among men upon this earth to save us! And it is written of him, — “He shall not fail” (Isaiah 42:4). What did Christ come to do? Here are five things revealed in the Scriptures.

WILL GOD DWELL
WITH MEN ON THE EARTH?

2 Chronicles 6:18

1. The Lord Jesus came to save his people from their sins (Matthew 1:21).
2. The Son of God came to redeem us from the curse of the law (Galatians 3:13; 4:4-5), to put away sin by the sacrifice of himself!
3. Our Lord Jesus Christ came here to be made sin for us that we might be made the righteousness of God in him (2 Corinthians 5:21).
4. Christ Jesus the Lord came here to redeem unto himself a peculiar people, zealous of good works (Titus 2:14).
5. Our blessed Savior came to bring many sons to glory (Hebrew 2:10).

When he had finished the work he came here to do, when he had laid down his life for us, “with his own blood he entered in once into the holy place, having obtained eternal redemption for us!”

- After his resurrection from the dead, he was received up into heaven in the sight of all the Apostles.

WILL GOD DWELL
WITH MEN ON THE EARTH?

2 Chronicles 6:18

- There Stephen saw him standing at the right hand of God.
- There every believer, by faith, beholds him crowned with glory and honor at the right hand of the Majesty on high.
- There he must sit and reign until he has put all his enemies under his feet.
- Then, at the time of the restitution of all things, he will come again. — “To them that look for him, he shall appear the second time, without sin unto salvation” (Hebrews 9:28).

THE INDWELLING GOD

3rd — However, and this is my third point, though he has gone to heaven to make intercession for us, our Lord still dwells upon the earth. He who is God our Savior is the infinite God, the incarnate God, and the indwelling God. When Solomon saw God come into the temple he had built, and said in astonishment, — “Will God in very deed dwell with men on the earth?” he was looking beyond that

WILL GOD DWELL
WITH MEN ON THE EARTH?

2 Chronicles 6:18

temple to what the temple it represented — the church and people of the living God, his spiritual temple. So, our text refers to God dwelling among his people in grace. — This is what the old puritans used to reverently call, “the Divine presence.” Read the Savior’s words about this, and rejoice.

(John 14:16-20) “And I will pray the Father, and he shall give you another Comforter, that he may abide with you forever; (17) Even the Spirit of truth; whom the world cannot receive, because it seeth him not, neither knoweth him: but ye know him; for he dwelleth with you, and shall be in you. (18) I will not leave you comfortless: I will come to you. (19) Yet a little while, and the world seeth me no more; but ye see me: because I live, ye shall live also. (20) At that day ye shall know that I am in my Father, and ye in me, and I in you.”

(John 16:7) “Nevertheless I tell you the truth; It is expedient for you that I go away: for if I go

WILL GOD DWELL
WITH MEN ON THE EARTH?
2 Chronicles 6:18

not away, the Comforter will not come unto you; but if I depart, I will send him unto you.”

(John 17:22-23) “And the glory which thou gavest me I have given them; that they may be one, even as we are one: (23) I in them, and thou in me, that they may be made perfect in one; and that the world may know that thou hast sent me, and hast loved them, as thou hast loved me.”

(John 17:25-26) “O righteous Father, the world hath not known thee: but I have known thee, and these have known that thou hast sent me. (26) And I have declared unto them thy name, and will declare it: that the love wherewith thou hast loved me may be in them, and I in them.”

- Christ dwells with his church (Matthew 18:20), as a father in his house to teach, protect, and provide discipline.
- Every true local church is the house and temple of God, the dwelling place of the Almighty (1

WILL GOD DWELL
WITH MEN ON THE EARTH?

2 Chronicles 6:18

Corinthians 3:16; Ephesians 2:20-22; 1 Timothy 3:15).

- Particularly, the Lord God, in the person of and by the Spirit of Christ, dwells in the hearts of all true believers (John 14:18).
- The Father comes and makes his abode with us (2 Corinthians 6:16).
- The Spirit comes and dwells as our Comforter (John 14:26).
- The Son dwells in our hearts by faith (Ephesians 3:17; Colossians 1:27).

Imagine that! What an astonishing fact! — The Lord Jesus Christ dwells and lives in his saints upon the earth! He dwells not in our heads only, not in our lips only, but in our hearts.

- He dwells where sin dwells. — In our hearts!
- He dwells where he is often slighted. — In our hearts (Song of Solomon 5).
- He dwells where his Holy Spirit is often grieved. — In our hearts!

WILL GOD DWELL
WITH MEN ON THE EARTH?

2 Chronicles 6:18

- Our God, the Lord Jesus Christ, dwells in us permanently!

No wonder Solomon spoke with such astonishment — “Will God in very deed dwell with men on the earth?”

He who alone is God, God who in very deed dwells with men on the earth, is...

- The Infinite God.
- The Incarnate God.
- The Indwelling God. And he is...

THE IMMACULATE GOD

4th — Once more, our text refers to the fact that there is a day coming when God will dwell with his people upon the earth in the immaculate perfection of everlasting glory and bliss (Job 19:25-27; Revelation 21:1-22:6). — We live in anticipation of “new heavens and a new earth” (2 Peter 3:13).

(Revelation 21:1-7) “And I saw a new heaven and a new earth: for the first heaven and the first earth were passed away; and there was no more sea. (2) And I John saw the holy city, new Jerusalem, coming down from God out of heaven, prepared as a bride adorned for her husband. (3) And I heard a great voice out of heaven saying, Behold, the tabernacle of God is with men, and he will dwell with them, and they shall be his people, and God himself shall be with them, and be their God. (4) And God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes; and there shall be no more death, neither sorrow, nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain: for the former things are passed away. (5) And he that sat upon the throne said, Behold, I make all things new. And he said unto me, Write: for these words are true and faithful. (6) And he said unto me, It is done. I am Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the end. I will give unto him that is athirst of the fountain of the water of life freely. (7) He that overcometh shall inherit all things; and I will be his God, and he shall be my son.”

(Revelation 21:22) “And I saw no temple therein: for the Lord God Almighty and the Lamb are the temple of it.”

(Revelation 21:23-27) “And the city had no need of the sun, neither of the moon, to shine in it: for the glory of God did lighten it, and the Lamb is the light thereof. (24) And the nations of them which are saved shall walk in the light of it: and the kings of the earth do bring their glory and honour into it. (25) And the gates of it shall not be shut at all by day: for there shall be no night there. (26) And they shall bring the glory and honour of the nations into it. (27) And there shall in no wise enter into it anything that defileth, neither whatsoever worketh abomination, or maketh a lie: but they which are written in the Lamb's book of life.”

(Revelation 22:1-6) “And he showed me a pure river of water of life, clear as crystal, proceeding out of the throne of God and of the Lamb. (2) In the midst of the street of it, and on either side of the river, was there the tree of life, which bare twelve manner of fruits, and yielded her fruit every month: and the leaves of the tree were for the healing of the nations. (3) And there shall be no more curse: but the throne of God and of the Lamb shall be in it; and his servants shall serve him: (4) And they shall see his face; and his name shall be in their foreheads. (5) And there shall be no night there; and they need no candle, neither light of the sun; for the Lord God giveth them light: and they shall reign for ever and ever. (6) And he said unto me, These sayings are faithful and true: and the Lord God of the holy prophets sent his angel to show unto his servants the things which must shortly be done.”

- Christ is coming again. — “Behold, he cometh!”
- When he appears, he will judge the world and save his people.
- He will make all things new, removing from his creation all the evil consequences of sin.
- On the earth God shall dwell forever with men and we shall dwell forever with our God!
- In that great, eternal world, when God makes all things new, we shall forever dwell upon an immaculate earth, in immaculate beauty, with the immaculate God, in all the glory of his immaculate being, and with all the glory Christ bestowed upon us by virtue of our immaculate union with him!
- Little wonder that when the Apostle Paul spoke of this hope, he called it, “the blessed hope!”

APPLICATION

“Will God in very deed dwell with men on the earth?” — Truly, this is astonishing grace indeed — “For ye know the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, that, though he was rich, yet for your sakes he became poor, that ye through his poverty might be rich” (2 Corinthians 8:9). — Oh, what richness awaits us!

Throw open the door of your heart to him, and God will come in to dwell with you (Revelations 3:20).

- Unbeliever!
- Believer!
- Forever!

Amen.
