

“Secular Strength vs. Sacred Trust”
1 Samuel 17:41-58

“Secular Strength vs. Sacred Trust”
1 Samuel 17:41-58

- I. Goliath offers commentary on the _____ disparity between the two combatants that was not devoid of religion, but believed the stronger and better warrior to be a better representative for his god (17:41-44).
- II. David appeals from a different _____ and one that provided the only logical explanation for his standing, the battle is the Lords and God will provide the victory (17:45-47).
- III. David’s correct theological application and resulting _____ in God gave both him and the Israelite armies a victory (17:48-54).

Leviticus 24:16; 1 Corinthians 12:4-11; 2 Samuel 5:6

- I. Goliath offers commentary on the _____ disparity between the two combatants that was not devoid of religion, but believed the stronger and better warrior to be a better representative for his god (17:41-44).
- II. David appeals from a different _____ and one that provided the only logical explanation for his standing, the battle is the Lords and God will provide the victory (17:45-47).
- III. David’s correct theological application and resulting _____ in God gave both him and the Israelite armies a victory (17:48-54).

Leviticus 24:16; 1 Corinthians 12:4-11; 2 Samuel 5:6