

“Honor your Father and Mother, it will be good for you”

Ephesians 6:1-4

Introduction:

Main Point: Our Lord has chosen to reveal Himself and His care for us first through our earthly mothers and fathers. Through them He challenges us to obey Him and to teach us how to show Him the respect He deserves. And even better, He provides many positive incentives to motivate and encourage us to hear and receive, trust and obey.

I. Who is it that I am supposed to honor?

II. "Live long and prosper" or "Die young and miserable"

III. How? Through obedience, honor, and gratitude

Conclusion: