The baby born in Bethlehem is the Savior of the world

Transformation should be evident in us

Paul placed a string emphasis on doctrine and theology, so should we

Spiritual growth should be evidence of our salvation but pride can get in the way

The things we do will not save us but are evidence we are saved

Jesus Christ will permeate all we do and all we are

There is joy in being a servant and in giving freely

A Christian should be content in all things

Christ is all we need

We should work at our faith and not weary in doing good

We are to respect each other as fellow believers

We are to preach the word and teach sound doctrine

Christ is supreme above all things, even ourselves

Our works are the evidence of our faith

Our maturity will show in how we handle suffering

False teaching denigrates the name of Christ and His presence

The baby we see in the gospels will bring judgment in Revelation
