

Ten Commandments (Part 5)
(Introduction – Part 5)

Introduction

- The Designation of the Ten Commandments in Scripture and Theology
- The Location of the Ten Commandments in Scripture
- The Numbering of the Ten Commandments
- The Structure of the Ten Commandments
- General Observations:

1. The Ten Commandments are authoritative in character.

2. The Ten Commandments are variable in form.

-Some are long while others are short.

-Some are expanded while others are merely stated.

-Eight are stated negatively and two are stated positively.

3. The Ten Commandments are focused in their address.

-Second person singular

4. The Ten Commandments are spiritual in their intent.

-Psalm 24:4; Romans 7:7

5. The Ten Commandments are gracious in their disposition.

-Exodus 20:2; 34:6, 7