

“Children and Parents: Obedience and Stewardship”

Ephesians 6:1-4

I. Children are to _____ their parents (6:1).

Acts 5:29; Mark 7:9-13

- a. Obedience is to be accompanied by, and later followed by, the placing of a high _____ on your parents (6:2).
- b. _____, in a post-Torah environment are being reminded the command to honor your parents was the first of the 10 commandments to be accompanied with a _____ (6:3).

Deuteronomy 5:16; Malachi 3:10-12; Jeremiah 18:6-10

II. Fathers are addressed _____ and _____ in their directions for parenting.

- a. Fathers are prohibited from a malpractice known here as “provoking _____” in their children (6:4a).

Ephesians 4:26-27; Colossians 3:21

- b. Set opposite of provocation to anger is _____ children in the discipline and instruction of the Lord (6:4b).

Deuteronomy 6:6-7; Proverbs 13:24; 22:6; 1 Timothy 3:4-5; Titus 1:6-7