

Murderous Adulterers, Yet Loved

Kevin Vigneault/James 4:1-6/12.27.15

9am Lord's Table Service

- I. VS. 1-3 - The Source - Where do divisions among us come from? The _____ that fight in us.
 - a. We strongly desire things – this results in _____.
 - b. We are jealous – this results in _____.
 - c. We don't have – this is a result of _____.

- II. VS. 4-6 - The Explanation – Our desire for the world is _____.
 - a. When we make ourselves friendly towards the pleasures of this world, we are making ourselves _____ of God.
 - b. When we make ourselves friendly towards the pleasures of this world, we are pushing away God's loving _____.
 - c. God is a gracious God who desires humility from His creation.

- III. Conclusion - We have this strong desire for things of this world causing fighting and hatred amongst ourselves which shows us friendly toward the world. Therefore when we act as a friend to the world we are posing ourselves as an enemy toward God who demolished sin and evil for He strongly desires us, His precious creation.
