In praying for spiritual things, we must be absolute.

When we pray for pardon of sin, and the favor of God, and the sanctifying graces of the Spirit, these are indispensably necessary to salvation, and here we must take no denial.

But when we pray for temporal things, here our prayers must be limited, we must pray conditionally so far as God sees them good for us.

God sometimes sees cause to withhold temporal things from us: they may be snares and draw our hearts from God, therefore we must pray for these things with submission to God's will.

Offerings are collected on the literature table in the hallway.

OUR CHURCH

We are a congregation of the Free Church of Scotland (Continuing), which has a presbytery in North America. The Free Church traces its historical roots back to the Protestant Reformation in Scotland, which began in 1560. The same biblical truths and spiritual identity have been maintained to the present day. Our doctrinal standards are the original 17th century version of the Westminster Confession of Faith and Larger and Shorter Catechisms. Further detailed information about our doctrine, worship, government, and practice are available on the book table and in the church library.
