

John 3:16

We, the families of the Village Bible Church do lovingly welcome you to this fellowship with us in the blessings of the Gospel.

As a body of believers, we are unified under the absolute authority and sufficiency of Scripture. We exist to equip the saints through preaching, teaching, and biblical discipleship which results in genuine worship, progressive sanctification, the exercise of spiritual gifts in Christian service, and evangelization of the lost. In everything, our goal and desire is to exalt the Lord Jesus Christ and bring glory to God.

FAMILY INFORMATION

Our goal is to promote families worshiping together. We believe children learn much from sharing the worship experience with adults. Please be considerate of others and keep children in their seats and as quiet as possible. Pews in the rear of the Sanctuary are reserved for families with small children.

The Lord's Day Hebrews 10:23–25

Our church's meeting on the first day of the week is no accident, it's not mere convenience, and it's not simply a tradition. We meet on the first day of the week because that is the designated day the church is to gather.

- 1. The first day of the week is the prophetic day of salvation Psalm 118:22–24
  - a. Jesus declared that He was the stone the builders rejected (Mat 21:42; Mar 12:10–11; Luk 20:17).
  - b. Jesus became the chief cornerstone when He was resurrected.
  - c. We are to rejoice and be glad in it—the day Jesus was resurrected!
- 2. The first day of the week is the day Jesus arose from the dead.
  - a. Matthew 28:1; Mark 16:1–2; Luke 24:1; John 20:1
  - b. Every gospel explicitly states the exact day of the resurrection.
  - c. The narrative is intended to set a date marker for the resurrection.
- 3. The first day of the week is the day the early church gathered together.
  - a. The first day of the week was the first time Jesus showed Himself alive to all the gathered disciples John 20:19, 26
  - The Holy Spirit descended and began the church age on the day of Pentecost which is 50 days after the first Sabbath after Passover, which was the first day of the week - Acts 2:1
  - c. The apostle Paul met with the church which regularly met for worship on the first day of the week Acts 20:7
- 4. The first day of the week is the day the church is commanded to meet.
  - a. The pattern of meeting on the first day of the week was well established when Paul commanded the Corinthians to take up the offerings on that day 1 Corinthians 16:1–2
  - b. Paul wanted to avoid the appearance of soliciting money for himself therefore, he ordered the money be collected during the regular meeting of the church on the first day of the week.
  - c. When should we collect our offerings? At our regular Sunday gatherings.
- 5. The first day of the week is called the Lord's Day.
  - a. The apostle John was in the Spirit and received the revelation of Jesus Christ for the church on a specific day - Revelation 1:9–10
  - b. This is a day belonging to the Lord just as we observe a supper that belongs to Him (the Lord's Supper; 1 Cor 11:20).
  - c. Sunday is the Lord's Day—it is the day that belongs to Him.

Brother and sister, we must not forsake the assembling of ourselves together on the Lord's Day!
