

LAW & GOSPEL
Second Commandment: Love & Hate
Exodus 20:4-6

Mac Williams, Pastor
November 4, 2018

1. The reality is a sober one for those who _____ to rightly worship the one true God.

- a. There are generational consequences to those who persist in sinful worship.
  - 1) When parents turn to idolatry instead of the Lord, their sin exerts an _____ influence on the children and grandchildren.
  - 2) Those who continue in the idolatrous sins of their parents will endure the condemnation of God for their own _____.
- b. All who refuse to rightly worship the one true God give evidence that they _____ God.

2. Those who rightly worship the Lord are _____ by Him.

- a. It is a great blessing for children to have Christian _____.
“God has mercy of all dimensions.” - Thomas Watson
- b. All who rightly worship the one true God give evidence of their _____ for the Lord.
“Love is a holy expansion or enlargement of soul, by which it is carried with delight after God, as the chief good.” - Thomas Watson
  - 1) Love to God is a love that is _____ all others.
  - 2) Love to God is an _____ pursuit of God.
- c. All who rightly worship the one true God will _____ His commandments.
  - 1) Obedience to God is an expression of love to God.
  - 2) Obedience to God must be done out of _____ in Jesus Christ to be acceptable to God.