THE whole course of affairs in the world is steered by Providence in reference to the good of Salem.

John Owen (17th century English Puritan)

IF you would not be discouraged in any condition, then never make your comforts depend upon your condition, nor be in love with any condition for itself. . . . Base your comforts upon your own condition, and you do but build on the sand, which will be carried away with every wind and storm, and tempest; but if you build upon Christ Himself, upon God Himself, you build upon the Rock, and though the floods, and storms, and winds rise and beat upon you, yet you shall not lose your comforts, because they are built upon a rock.

William Bridge (17th century English Puritan)

OUR CHURCH

We are a congregation of the Free Church of Scotland (Continuing), which has a presbytery in North America. The Free Church traces its historical roots back to the Protestant Reformation in Scotland, which began in 1560. The same biblical truths and spiritual identity have been maintained to the present day. Our doctrinal standards are the original 17th century version of the Westminster Confession of Faith and Larger and Shorter Catechisms. Further detailed information about our doctrine, worship, government, and practice are available on the book table and in the church library.
