1. There is great _____ in taking the good things God has given us and turning them into opportunities for sin.

- a. Be careful of considering the gifts of God as a reason to be _____.

- b. Be careful of using the gifts of God as the means of indulging your own sinful _____.

- c. Be aware that God is justified in taking _____ His gifts if we will not use them to honor Him.

2. God mercifully makes His _____ known to many, but He is often shamefully rejected by those who have known His Word.

- a. God reveals Himself as being a gloriously sufficient _____.

b. In spite of being taught the Word of God, many will _____ it and be ensnared by sin.

- 1) Even though we have seen sin have devastating effects in the lives of others, we can often fall to those _____ sins.

- 2) Embracing sin as a way of life causes our ability to _____ to be greatly distorted.

“Under this figure, Isaiah describes the whole life of the people as _____ beyond endurance.”
- John Calvin

- 3) It is right to teach and learn the truths of God in a clear, line-upon-line kind of way; but we have to _____ against that familiarity with the Scriptures becoming contemptible to us.

“It is great impiety, and a high affront to God, thus to make a _____ of sacred things, to speak of that vainly which should make us serious.” - Matthew Henry

c. God offers a genuine _____ in the Lord, but if that rest is rejected there will be judgment.
