THE PROPOSAL

“To throw ourselves unnecessarily into perilous positions and expect God to work a miracle for our protection is fanaticism and not faith. When we rush into danger we should pray, not for preservation but for pardon” W. Graham Scroggie.

THE PROMISE

“Christ had quoted Scripture against him and Satan would show that he could quote Scripture as well as Christ” (Matthew Henry).

The Authority of the Word

“Satan was quite as well aware that God’s Word was immutable and unconquerable. He knew full well that all spiritual strength and comfort was contained in it. With all his subtlety he has nothing to reply to the bold and straightforward declaration of God’s will. He is struck dumb” John Garbett.

The Application of the Word

“The Scriptures are the sole argument which He uses, the sole guide which He takes, the sole source of strength on which He throws Himself. You see nothing added to it, no consideration from any other quarter of reason or convenience, or ultimate gain; no calculations of any kind called in to give it fresh power, or an influence not properly its own. It is thrust boldly forward, by its own strength alone sustained”
John Garbett.
