

“The Discipline Of A Disciple”

Knowing Jesus, Following Jesus

Luke 6:40 (863) Mark 3: 7-14, 31-35 (838)

In Muslim countries authorities care very little to whom you pray. But when you “come to” Jesus and are baptized into his name, you become a threat. Today we explore what it means to become a “disciple” of somebody, a concept that cuts against all western concepts of independence. Being a disciple of Jesus is costly. It involves a radical commitment to “being with him” and being “fully trained

I. We _____ Jesus because he is the _____ of _____ (v 8).

II. We understand He has _____ us to be _____ (v13-14).

III. We are (with _____) committed to doing the _____ of _____ (v 34)

IV. We are disciples willing to be _____ by our Teacher (Luke 6:40).
