

Learning from Bad Examples

1 Corinthians 10:1-13

I – The tragedy of ancient Israel a – They had every spiritual privilege

1 – They were all under the cloud

2 – They all passed through the sea

3 – They all ate spiritual food

4 – They all drank spiritual drink

b – Yet, they were spiritually desolate

Learning from Bad Examples

1 Corinthians 10:1-13

II – The spiritual implications for us a – We should not crave what is evil, as Israel did

1 – We should flee from idolatry

2 – We should flee from immorality

3 – We should not test the Lord's patience

4 – We should not grumble against the Lord

Learning from Bad Examples

1 Corinthians 10:1-13

II – The spiritual implications for us

b – We should desire what is good, as the faithful did

1 – We should be alert to our weakness

2 – We should seek the Lord's help through our temptations