As latest batch of innocent Americans are left lying in pools of blood, cowards who could truly end gun scourge continue to hide behind meaningless platitudes PAGES 2-9

The implication of this ridiculous and insensitive headline is one of the following:

- 1) God doesn't care.
- 2) God isn't willing to act.
- 3) Prayer is useless.
- 4) The politicians are insincere.

“Christianity cannot be true because of the evil and suffering in our world.” That sentiment seems to be echoed today on the controversial front page of the New York Daily News,

Well, what do we expect? God is just and his justice prevails, along with His love and mercy. But God is not weak or soft, and in a nation that has turned its back on Him, suffering will occur as a consequence.

As soon as the news broke about the attack, liberals began heaping scorn on Christians who pray. It tells you a lot about our society that rather than provoking prayer, tragedies now provoke prayer-shaming. As terrified victims huddled in closets and behind locked doors, texting and calling their families and pleading for prayer, the response from many of the vile, godless heathens in this country was clear: They curse our prayers
“The Blaze”

I would say, That because We have left God,

God isn't fixing this.
He is ordaining this.

It is clear in scripture that God moves the nations. He raises up nations to destroy others. and will do the same to America

Biblical Reminders

“Remember the former things of old: for I am God, and there is none else; I am God, and there is none like Me, declaring the end from the beginning, and from ancient times the things that are not yet done, saying, My counsel shall stand, and I will do all My pleasure” (Isa. 46:9, 10).

And His kingdom is from generation to generation.

³⁵ All the inhabitants of the earth are reputed as nothing;

Or say to Him, “What have You done?”

Ex 3:21

¹⁹ But I am sure that the king of Egypt will not let you go, no, not even by a mighty hand. ²⁰ So I will stretch out My hand and strike Egypt with all My wonders which I will do in its midst; and after that he will let you go. ²¹ And I will give this people favor in the sight of the Egyptians; and it shall be, when you go, that you shall not go empty-handed. ²

“Joshua made war a long time with all those kings. There was not a city that made peace with the children of Israel, save the Hivites the inhabitants of Gibeon: all other they took in battle. For it was of the LORD to harden their hearts, that they should come against Israel in battle, that He might destroy them utterly, and that they might have no favor, but that He might destroy them as the LORD commanded Moses” (Josh. 11:18-20).

“The LORD hath made all things for Himself: yea, even the wicked for the day of evil” (Prov. 16:4)
