

ANCHORS FOR THE STORMS | ACTS 27:1-28:15

Context: When Paul was on trial in Caesarea, he appealed to Caesar, which meant he would travel to Rome. Our passage for today recounts his very dangerous and adventurous journey, as well as the support God gave him along the way.

What we KNOW about storms	What we DON'T KNOW about storms
<ol style="list-style-type: none">1. Storms happen.2. Storms are usually beyond our control.3. Storms can take a serious toll on us.4. Although the presence of God does not keep us _____ storms, the presence of God will	<ol style="list-style-type: none">1. When storms will happen2. Why storms come3. When storms will end

Anchors in Storms:

1. Comfort from a God who is _____ (23)
2. Relationship with a God whom _____ (23)
3. Confidence in a God who is _____
4. Trust in a God who is faithful to his _____

