Psalm 107

Let the Redeemed of the Lord Say So.

(How to study a passage of Scripture – interactive group participation)

1. What kind of Literature is Psalms
2. What kind of Psalm are we reading?
3. Do you see any repetition of words and phrases? Where?
4. Can you tell how it breaks down? Does it seem to have sections?

Let try to work it out this way

1. (verses 1-3) Call _____ (Introduction)
   a. Are there specific reasons for Praise?
   b. Is there a specific manner of praise?
2. (Verses 4-9) We can Hope in God when _____
   _____
   a. Was the reason for distress known?
   b. What did they do in their distress?
   c. What did God do?
   d. What was the proper response to deliverance?
   e. Was the event past tense or present?
3. (Verses 10-16) We can hope in God when _____
   a. Was the reason for the distress known?
   b. What did they do in their distress?
   c. What did God do?
   d. What was the proper response to deliverance?
   e. Was the event past tense or present?
4. (Verses 17 – 22) We can hope in God when _____
   a. Was the reason for distress known?
   b. What did they do in their distress?
   c. What did God do?
   d. What was the proper response to deliverance?
   e. Was the event past tense or present?
5. (Verses 23-32) We can hope in God when _____
   a. Was the reason for distress known?

      b. What did they do in their distress?

      c. What did God do?

      d. What was the proper response to deliverance?

      e. Was the event past tense or present?

6. (Verses 33-38) We can Hope in God because _____

   _____

      a. He can make _____ ____ ____; He can make _____ ____ __

      _____

7. (Verses 39-42) We can Hope in God because _____

   _____

      a. God knows how to turn ruin into _____ and how to ____ __
      _____of the wicked.

8. (Verse 43) We should Hope in God _____

   _____

      a. It requires _____ which results in _____-
      of how good God really is.

Lessons:

- We are never too _____
- We are never so low _____
- We are never so _____
- We are never so

   _____

Application: Is this applicable today?

Am I informed, instructed, convicted, or challenged ?

Should I confess something?

Should I change something?

Should I do something?