Sermon: Hebrews 12:25-29

1. Today's passage had to do with God's judgment. People often accuse Christians of being judgmental and narrow minded for believing that we are the only ones going to heaven. How would you respond to such an accusation?

---

---

2. Feelings of security and stability in this world are often short lived, as we realize just how easily this world can be shaken. Such turmoil and uneasiness can lead to much anxiety and worry. What comfort can be found read Hebrews 12:28 and 1 Peter 1:3-4?

---

---

3. Many people spend the vast amount of their life and energy to have wealth during this life in hopes of achieving stability and security. However, these things are temporary and certainly shakable. While work, money, and stability are not bad, there is a danger that we must be aware of. What truths can be found in these passages to help navigate this issue:

A. Matthew 6:19-24.

---

B. 1 Timothy 6:10

---

---

C. Luke 12:13-21

---

---

D. 1 John 3:17-18

---

---

4. Mark 1:14 mentions the kingdom of God, but also repentance and belief. Repentance means "to turn around" or "a change of mind."

A. What is the relationship between repentance and salvation? Read Acts 17:30-31; Rom. 2:3-5

---

---

B. Is it important to tell people about Christ and the need to repent from sin? If so, why?

---

---

5. One of the most neglected sources of strength for a Christian today is other Christians. Christians often become so self-focused that the concept of "the body of Christ" is neglected. What are some benefits from being in close relationship with other Christians?
