

Thomas (Tom) William Day of Edmonton passed away peacefully on December 16, 2023 at the age of 92. He is survived by his loving wife Irene (of 67 years), his children Janis, Brian, and Debra, his grandchildren Colin, AJ, Brianna, Hannah, and Tyler (step), great grandchildren Cameron, Jack, Charles, Ashley, and Juniper, and great-great grandchildren Lillie and Zander. He loved to spend time with his family and was very proud of his grandchildren and their families. Tom grew up in Edmonton with his seven siblings (George, Gwen, Reg, Frank, Eddie, Georgina, and Corrine), all who predeceased him, and had a special relationship with his nephew Clayton. They all grew up near the Edmonton Municipal Airport which fostered his life-long love of aircraft.

Tom was a generous and fun-loving man. Life was to be savored and so he ensured there were plenty of adventures for family and friends, whether it was a road trip, backyard fun, or a hike in the woods. He had a strong love of nature which he explored through boating, camping, fishing, and hiking. Where he was or whatever he was doing you would be sure to hear his infectious laugh or hear him whistling and singing.

He always had projects on the go and enjoyed designing and building furniture. He made his early living as an interior/exterior painter and eventually as a carpenter and handyman. His greatest pleasures were helping others, whether it was to build a home, move house, or to take care of someone's pet. No task was too small or too large.

Toward the end of his working life he was instrumental in erecting the current building which houses the Meadowlands Baptist Church of which he was a member. He developed close friends during the project and took solace in knowing the building would be used and enjoyed by the congregation long after his departure.

When I come to the end of the road
And the sun has set for me,
I want no rites in a gloom filled room.
Why cry for a soul set free?

Miss me a little, but not for long,
And not with your head bowed low.
Remember the love that once we shared.
Miss me, but let me go.

For this is a journey we all must take
And each must go alone.
It's all part of the Master plan.
A step on the road to home.

When you are lonely and sick at heart,
Go to the friends we know.
Laugh at all the things we used to do.
Miss me, but let me go.
