

INTRODUCTION

- the ubiquitous call to “remember”

Jdg. 8:34

- + Feast of Unleavened Bread

Deut. 16:3

- + Feast of Weeks

Deut. 16:12

- + Feast of Booths

Deut. 4:9, 23; 6:12; 8:11; 9:7; Ps. 103:2; 119:16

- what these reminders to remember accomplish

- + they keep us _____
Prov. 4:25-26

- + they afford us _____ and _____ amid uncertainty

- + they serve to _____ the next generation
Josh. 4:6-7

1. Remember who you are today in Christ (3:1-2)

- our obligation before the State

Mt. 22:15-21; Lk. 20:19ff

Acts 5:28-29, 42

- our obligation before all men
  - + be ready for every good deed
Tit. 1:16; 3:8; Eph. 2:10

- + malign no one
2 Pet. 2:2; 1 Pet. 2:21-23

- + be peaceable

- + be gentle

- + show every consideration for all men

2. Remember who you were yesterday before Christ (3:3)

- we were once foolish
Eph. 4:18; 1 Cor. 2:14

- we were once disobedient

- we were once deceived

- we were once enslaved to various lusts & pleasures

- we were once spending our life in malice and envy

- we were once hateful and hating one another

CONCLUSION