“Out of Zion, the perfection of beauty, God shines forth. Our God comes, he does not keep silence, before him is a devouring fire ... Offer to God a sacrifice of thanksgiving, and perform your vows to the Most High, and call upon me in the day of trouble; I will deliver you, and you shall glorify me.”

- Psalm 50:2-3, 14-15

There is Trouble (with a capital T) that crashes into our lives at times. There are also those nagging troubles that beset us in the details of life. And what of the sufferings of others I am supposed to bear with them? This series focuses on “faith in the fire,” the act of trusting the Trustworthy God who promises “I will deliver you, and you shall glorify me” (v15). Wrestle with the craziness and sorrow of the world, and turn, turn, turn to live by faith in the Lord who will be faithful to you!

1. Where is God in the day of _____? Do you _____ him?

2. _____ to God: what is _____ about thanksgiving.

3. _____ God: keep doing what is _____.

4. _____ for God: He promises _____.
