

We Exist to Worship

John 4:19-24

Our Vision

What is the chief end of man?

True worship is the response of grateful _____, reverence, and _____ to the redemptive revelation of the only true God.

- I. "You worship the wrong one, the wrong way."
 - a. Worship requires _____.
 - b. Worship requires revelation, but it must require _____ than general revelation.
 - c. History Lesson:
 - i. The wrong way often looks like the _____.
 - ii. The wrong way is often motivated by _____.
- II. "We worship the right One, the right way."
 - a. Worship requires _____.
 - b. Worship requires the _____ of God's _____ work.
 - c. True worship is a _____ to redemptive revelation.
 - i. Romans 9:4
- III. "There is a 'new' way to worship."
 - a. _____ is the first true worshipper.
 - b. _____ is the means of true worship.
 - c. _____ is making true worshippers.
- IV. CONCLUSION

We Exist to Worship

John 4:19-24

Our Vision

What is the chief end of man?

True worship is the response of grateful _____, reverence, and _____ to the redemptive revelation of the only true God.

- I. "You worship the wrong one, the wrong way."
 - a. Worship requires _____.
 - b. Worship requires revelation, but it must require _____ than general revelation.
 - c. History Lesson:
 - i. The wrong way often looks like the _____.
 - ii. The wrong way is often motivated by _____.
- II. "We worship the right One, the right way."
 - a. Worship requires _____.
 - b. Worship requires the _____ of God's _____ work.
 - c. True worship is a _____ to redemptive revelation.
 - i. Romans 9:4
- III. "There is a 'new' way to worship."
 - a. _____ is the first true worshipper.
 - b. _____ is the means of true worship.
 - c. _____ is making true worshippers.
- IV. CONCLUSION