Bottom Line:

God calls us to trust him when we feel wronged or violated by others. Our conviction stems from the belief that God is a much better justice-maker than any human, therefore vengeance belongs to God alone.

1. Trust God to implement _____ in your personal life! Romans 12:19

A. "Never" means "Never". Romans 12:19

B. _____, if possible, in a biblical way is the right option. Matthew 1:15-20

C. Taking to court is not forbidden (or church mediation if involves believers). 1 Corinthians 6

D. Setting up _____ is a healthy part of any response to wrongs.

E. Acting Christ-like should always be our "only option".

F. Identifying the _____ destination of endless wrongs is incredibly wise.

2. See opportunities in hurtful times for _____ to be a powerful testimony for God! Romans 12:20

3. Realize that following God's plan is the only way to become a _____ not a _____. Romans 12:21

Now What?

1. Meditate upon and _____ the type of response Jesus had on the cross. Luke 23:34

2. See offenders as _____ of Satan's schemes. Matthew 16:23

3. Pray to trust God and give a godly response. Prov. 3:5-6

4. Rejoice over the _____ you bring by breaking the cycle of wrongs. Hebrews 12:2

5. See the bigger picture of bringing _____ to God in all of your actions. Matthew 5:16
