

Study Questions for the Covenant of Life Opened.

(Part 16.)

703. What is the theme of the second part of this book?

704. What is the first question raised?

705. What are the answers given?

A. _____

B. _____

706. What differences are noted between the first and second Adam?

707. What is the second point noted?

708. What is said concerning the suffering of the reprobate? Why?

709. What is the next question raised?

710. What distinction does Paraeus and others make concerning the righteousness of Christ?

711. What is the first consideration under which the active obedience of Christ may be contemplated?

712. What is the second consideration under which the active obedience of Christ may be contemplated?

A. _____

B. _____

713. What is the definition of satisfaction?

714. What must be said of the good restored?

A. _____

B. _____

715. What is the objection raised herein?

716. What answer does our author give?

717. What can be said of Christ's actions of God-man, though of infinite worth?

A. _____

B. _____

718. What questions are raised against the scheme which make Christ's death to all?

A. _____

B. _____

C. _____

D. _____

E. _____

719. What does Rutherford say against the notion of a universal Covenant of Grace?

A. _____

B. _____

720. What is the question raised at the end of this chapter?

721. What are the subjects of the second chapter?

A. _____

B. _____

C. _____

D. _____

722. What things must be considered regarding our right to Christ?

A. _____

B. _____

C. _____

723. What is the first conclusion given in concerning grace?

724. What diverse considerations are there regarding our right?

A. _____

B. _____

C. _____

725. What rule is noted concerning cause and effect?

726. What is noted secondly that cannot be true?

727. What is the second conclusion given in?

728. What is the first reason given?

729. What is the second reason given?

730. What is the third reason considered?

731. What are the possibilities Rutherford outlines?

A. _____

B. _____

732. What should be concluded regarding the law right or purchase?

733. What should be noted concerning the efficacious application?

734. In what sense is Christ said to be the Head?

735. What is the third conclusion given in?

736. What question is raised herein?

737. What answer is given?

738. What are the three parts of original sin?

A. _____

B. _____

C. _____

739. What considerations are to be had regarding imputation of sin?

A. _____

B. _____

C. _____

740. What is the difference outlined between Adam and Christ in this matter of imputation?

741. In what way are we deprived of the image of God? How not?

742. What is noted concerning the legal satisfaction and paying of a debt?

743. What things are noted concerning the Law of Works standing, as it is most spiritual and holy?

A. _____

B. _____

C. _____