

CORNERSTONE
BAPTIST CHURCH

“Let Your Hands Be Strong!”

Zechariah 8:1-17

- I. After His decision to leave Zion desolate in the past (7:14), God begins a lengthy statement of His
_____ with Israel (8:1-3).

Jeremiah 33:14-18

- a. Jerusalem will again become a _____ (8:4-6).

Revelation 20:2; Isaiah 65:19-20; Ephesians 2:3-7; Jeremiah 32:26-28

- b. God will _____ His people and will place their _____ with Him (8:7-8).

Revelation 21:15-16

- II. A core message of encouragement is given to be _____ in facing the task of temple
completion and the rebuilding of Jerusalem—God is with you (8:9, 13, 15).

Ezra 3:10-13

- a. Just as God’s hand brought _____,
God’s hand will bring _____ (8:10-13).

Haggai 1:6

- b. God is for Israel and they are to live out fearless lives of _____ toward others (8:14-17).

CORNERSTONE
BAPTIST CHURCH

“Let Your Hands Be Strong!”

Zechariah 8:1-17

- I. After His decision to leave Zion desolate in the past (7:14), God begins a lengthy statement of His
_____ with Israel (8:1-3).

Jeremiah 33:14-18

- a. Jerusalem will again become a _____ (8:4-6).

Revelation 20:2; Isaiah 65:19-20; Ephesians 2:3-7; Jeremiah 32:26-28

- b. God will _____ His people and will place their _____ with Him (8:7-8).

Revelation 21:15-16

- II. A core message of encouragement is given to be _____ in facing the task of temple
completion and the rebuilding of Jerusalem—God is
with you (8:9, 13, 15).

Ezra 3:10-13

- a. Just as God’s hand brought _____,
God’s hand will bring _____ (8:10-13).

Haggai 1:6

- b. God is for Israel and they are to live out fearless lives of _____ toward others (8:14-17).