| What does John say about those who do not          |   |
| possess brotherly love?                            |   |
| They do not have eternal life, they are still in   |   |

|   |          |
| The ability to sacrificially love someone as  |          |
| Christ did, was not only the command of Christ to His followers but also a command    |          |
| that could only be fulfilled by His followers.  |          |
| that could only be familied by this followers.  |          |
