

GOSPEL OF MARK

The Resurrection

Mark 16:1-8

Mac Williams, Pastor

February 1, 2015

1. Some lessons from the _____ response to the resurrection.

- a. A genuine commitment to Christ will produce a heart-felt _____ for Him as well.
- b. In His mercy, God receives acts of devotion to Him even though they are sometimes mixed with weak _____.
- c. God uses the _____ to show Himself strong.

"He orders (the women) to give speedy notice of this to His disciples. Thus they were made to be _____ of the apostles, which was a recompense of their affection and fidelity to Him, in attending Him on the cross, to the grave, and in the grave." - Matthew Henry

- d. It is a humbling and fearful thing to be confronted with _____ direct intervention in the regular events of life.

2. Christ's resurrection confirms that salvation is the _____ of God, to which man adds nothing.

- a. Christ's resurrection took place on the day after a very sad Sabbath day of _____.
- b. Christ clearly promised that He would rise again but it seems that _____ expected it.
- c. The Lord took care of hindrances to the women's plans _____ they even knew about them.
- d. God sent the angel to give a _____ interpretation of the events the women witnessed.
- e. God communicated great encouragement to the disciples and especially Peter, even though they had _____ greatly.
- f. The _____ that every believer has is that the resurrected Christ goes before them.