"God being omniscient and every where present, there can nothing be said or done in the world, but he hears or discerns it. But the hearing of prayer in the sense of Scripture is a peculiar privilege of the Lord's people."

By: Thomas Boston

We encourage each one to quietly prepare his heart for worship before the beginning of each worship service, as this befits the glory of the God with whom we meet.

There is a break following the Morning Worship Service where a meal is served. We cordially invite our visitors to join us in this opportunity for Christian fellowship and spiritual conversation.

Offerings are collected on the literature table.

OUR CHURCH

We are a congregation of the Free Church of Scotland (Continuing), which has a presbytery in North America. The Free Church traces its historical roots back to the Protestant Reformation in Scotland, which began in 1560. The same biblical truths and spiritual identity have been maintained to the present day. Our doctrinal standards are the original 17th century version of the Westminster Confession of Faith, the Westminster Larger Catechism and the Westminster Shorter Catechism. Further detailed information about our doctrine, worship, government, and practice is available on the book table and in the Church library.
