

With a Little Help From My Friends

Colossians 4:7-18

- I. In a day of isolation, this text reminds us that we have a family
- II. In a day of celebrity worship, this text speaks to the significance of ordinary people
- III. In a day of identity policies, this passage showcases the power of the gospel to erase all dividing lines

With a Little Help From My Friends

Colossians 4:7-18

- IV. In a day of media saturation, this passage reminds us that we have an authoritative text
- V. In a day of antagonism toward the Christian faith, this passage tells us that we have all the spiritual resources we need to persevere