INTRO , “BOOK of HOPE”

After some introductory material, this “harmony” of the 4 Gospels begins on page 1. A harmony is an attempt to put the story of Jesus in time order, just as we have been studying the rest of the Bible. This way there will be no repetition. (Read pages 174-175 for further explanation.)

Following the harmony are some further helps (beginning page 140). You should familiarize yourself with these reference items for future use. Especially notice the QUESTIONS beginning page 152, as you will be doing those questions in addition to the ones I give here.

INTRO , MATTHEW

In each of the first four (of SIX) lessons about JESUS, we will introduce one of the Gospel writers.

MATTHEW’s Gospel is written TO the JEWS ,BY a JEW, ABOUT a JEW. Matthew was one of Jesus’ disciples, a tax collector, the son of Alphaeus. (Mark 2:14)He stresses the “kingdom of heaven”, mentioned by no other New Testament writer (to show Jesus is King). He uses 130 direct or indirect quotes from the Old Testament, and the statement, “that what was spoken through the prophets might be fulfilled,” used by no other Gospel writer (to show Jesus is the promised Messiah).

His genealogy and use of “Son of David” proves Jesus to be, in the flesh, the One awaited.

Probably written in the late 50’s to mid 60’s A.D., as the destruction of Jerusalem (foretold in Matthew 24, occurred in A.D. 70) is still future.
