Heb. 11 is not some quaint little gallery of _____.

Heb. 11 makes clear that justification comes by faith _____

Good works originate with justifying _____

This faith is what _____ God

The central feature of the whole chapter is "by _____"

Heb 11 shows most clearly that faith alone is not an _____ faith

Sacrifices were offered as an act of _____ Sacrifices reflected the relationship of the worshiper to the One

_____

Many people think that Abel's sacrifice was better because it was the shedding of _____

Is this correct? _____

Abel, by faith, brought his _____ to Yahweh

Abel's faith pointed to the object of his hope and his offering expressed how he valued that _____

What was wrong with Cain's offering?

The attitude, the heart, "any old pumpkin will _____"

Cain responds with anger and self-_____

Abel was justified by _____

Through his justifying faith, it was attested he was _____

Abel's faith was demonstrated by his _____ and was accepted by _____

Abel's life still speaks of the _____ that pleases God.
