

PSALMS
of
SATISFACTION

Scripture Reading

PSALM 63

MAIN POINT

Your soul can be satisfied with God
while under attack.

How can you find satisfaction in God while you are under attack?

1. Recognize that only God can satisfy your soul right now (verses 1-4).

How can you find satisfaction in God while you are under attack?

1. Recognize that only God can satisfy your soul right now (verses 1-4).
2. Remember all the times that God has helped and upheld you in the past (verses 5-8).

How can you find satisfaction in God while you are under attack?

1. Recognize that only God can satisfy your soul right now (verses 1-4).
2. Remember all the times that God has helped and upheld you in the past (verses 5-8).
3. Rest assured that God will soon judge those who oppose his chosen king (verses 9-11).

“[These final verses] remind us that this is a real world after all and that, if we are to be genuinely satisfied with God’s love, it must not be in some never-never land but right here in the midst of this world’s disappointments, frustrations, and dangers. In other words, it is at the very time when his son had betrayed him and was seeking to kill him that David found the Lord’s love to be richly satisfying.”

— James Montgomery Boice