

When was the last time you thanked God for Christians you know?

We should thank God for other Christians.

Thank God for the faith and love you see in other Christians' lives.

The more complex and exquisite something is, the more we appreciate it.

For another believer to show the kindness of God is a miracle indeed.

The more you know other believers, the more their faults may irritate you.

First, I thank my God through Jesus Christ for you all ...

Romans 1:8

I thank my God upon every remembrance of you ...

Philippians 1:3

I thank my God always concerning you for the grace of God which was given to you by Christ Jesus,

1 Corinthians 1:4

To be transformed, we need God's help to understand and apply his blessings.

The hope of God's calling

The riches of God's inheritance

The greatness of God's power

Hope is a confident, unrelenting expectation of what is in the future.

A new believer cannot comprehend all that Christ calls us to be, do, and experience.

We must understand our immeasurable value
to God.

We must understand the sheer awesomeness of God's power.

God gives us direct access to his superior power through Christ.

God directs his power towards us – especially as the church.

God cannot give us any more grace than he's already given in Christ.

We need to be more consistent in living for Christ as his church.

When we pray,
don't pray for things we already have.
