Conclusion:

For the Believing O_____ - "Even old people, who think of no other removal than that to the grave, live to see great changes in their family. It is good to be ready, not only for the grave, but for whatever may happen betwixt us and the grave." Henry

For the Unbelieving Y_____ - "It is wonderful to come from a believing family, so you can say, 'My God is the God of my father and mother and of their fathers and mothers before them.' The benefits of a pious upbringing are not to be despised. Still, wonderful as this is, the important thing is whether God is your God and whether you are known by Him personally. Is God your God? Has he ever called you personally? Boice

For the Ones R_____ to Obey and Follow God:

1. Seek God first and with all your heart.
2. Do not be afraid
3. Be ready to obey
4. Know that God is with you and will never leave or forsake you.
5. His ways will likely not be your ways in bring about His purpose in your life.

For All Who B_____ - Boice - "Often we have a small view of what God is doing. But it will calm our fears if we can see our work as a part of His large plan and know that one day we will be part of that great company." Rev 5:9-10
