1. To be prepared to truly love fellow believers in their time of need, one must walk by the _____.

"The ' _____ ' are those who live by the Spirit, walk by the Spirit, and exhibit in their lives the fruit of the Spirit." - Curtis Vaughan

2. "Spiritual" people are called to _____ fellow believers who have been overtaken in a sin.

- a. Effective restoration for those who have been caught in sin should be done with _____.

"Especially he means any _____ of professors ... into sin, through inadvertency and want of care and watchfulness, in distinction from a willful, obstinate, and continued course of sinning." - John Gill

- b. Effective restoration for fellow believers must be done with full awareness of one's own _____ and liability to sin.

3. "Spiritual" people are called to help _____ the burdens of fellow believers.

- a. God often uses fellow believers to help during difficult _____.

- b. When Christians help one another in love they are actually fulfilling the _____ of God.

4. "Spiritual" people will pursue a right understanding of _____.

- a. It is important to resist pride and realize that apart from the Lord we are _____.

- b. It is important to evaluate the things we do in light of the Word of God and not in comparison with other _____.

- c. It is important that we take personal _____ for the obligations God has given us

"He supposes that there is a day coming when we must all give an account of ourselves to God; and he declares that then the judgment will proceed and the sentence pass, not according to the sentiments of the world concerning us, or any ungrounded opinion we may have had of ourselves, or upon our having been better or worse than others, but according as our state and behavior have really been in the sight of _____."

- Matthew Henry
