

GALATIANS
Sowing and Reaping
Galatians 6:6-10

Mac Williams, Pastor
January 29, 2012

1. The principle of sowing and reaping is a reality that _____ has ordained in all of life.

- a. Man is responsible for what he _____ and can generally expect a corresponding harvest.

- b. Be on guard against showing _____ for God by living as if your actions have no consequences.

2. Three realms in which the principle of sowing and reaping is demonstrated.

a. Christian _____.

- 1) God has ordained in the church that there is a need to _____ and the need to be instructed in the Word of God.

- 2) "A minister may expect to be supported by the congregation. He _____ the good seed of God's Word, and he reaps a livelihood." - John Stott

b. Personal _____.

- 1) When we tolerate and pursue _____ in our thoughts and actions we can expect a harvest of corruption.

"(Corruption is) a mean and short-lived satisfaction at _____, and ruin and misery at the end of it." - Matthew Henry

- 2) When we walk by the Spirit we can expect a harvest of eternal _____ that is begun here and perfected hereafter.

c. Christian _____.

- 1) Believers must persevere in _____ to the glory of God with the confidence that God will bring a harvest in His time.

- 2) Believers should take the opportunities that God providentially provides to do _____ to people of all sorts.

"We have need of godly wisdom and discretion to direct us in the exercise of our charity or beneficence, and particularly in the choice of the proper _____ of it; for, though none who stand in need of us are to be wholly overlooked, yet there is a difference to be made between some and others." - Matthew Henry

- 3) Believers should be especially aware of how they can serve fellow _____.
