What Does True Repentance Toward Others Look Like?
2 Corinthians 2:5-11; 7:8-11

- I. Repentance Is with the Mind 2 Cor. 7:11; Ps. 51:3
 - A. True Repentance with Mind Means One Stops Making Excuses for Sin

 - B. Repentance with the Mind Means One Acknowledges Sin as Sin
 - 1. Confess Sin as I Am Wrong
1 Jn. 3:4; Ps. 32:5

 - 2. Confess Sin Specifically
Ps. 32:9; 1 Jn. 1:9; Lev. 16:21; Josh. 7:19; Hos. 14:2; Wcf 15

 - 3. Confess Sin Acknowledging the Other Person's Perspective

- II. Repentance Is with the Heart
 - A. Four Indicators of False Sorrow
 - 1. False: If Sorrow Is about Consequences Heb. 12:16, 17

 - 2. False: If Sorrow Is about Oneself

 - 3. False: If Sorrow Is Not about the Other Person

 - 4. False: If Sorrow Is All There Is 2 Cor. 7:9; 7:10

 - B. Two Indicators of True, Biblical Sorrow of Repentance
 - 1. True Sorrow Leads to Confession Ps. 32:5

 - 2. True Sorrow Leads to Change 2 Cor. 7:11

- III. Repentance Is with the Will 2 Cor. 7:11; Isa. 55:7; 1 Pet. 2:25; Lk. 22:32
 - A. Repentance with the Will Means One Runs to Christ
Jn. 7:37; Isa. 55:1-2; 1 Thess. 1:9, 10; Lk. 15:18

 - B. Repentance with the Will Means One Runs from Sin
2 Cor. 6:17; Matt. 5:30; Ps. 1:1; Prov. 13:20

 - C. Repentance with the Will Means One Runs to Obedience, and Restitution
Num. 5:7; Lk. 19:8; Lev. 5:14--6:7; Eph. 4:28

 - D. Repentance with the Will Means One Satisfies the Offended

 - E. Repentance with the Will Means One Accepts Accountability from Others

Quotes

“It were an easy thing to be a Christian, if religion stood only in a few outward works and duties, but to take the soul to task, and to deal roundly with our own hearts, and to let conscience have its full work, and to bring the soul into spiritual subjection unto God, this is not so easy a matter, because the soul out of self-love is loath to enter into itself, lest it should have other thoughts of itself than it would have.”

Richard Sibbes

"He that can repent without sorrowing, suspect his repentance." Thomas Watson

"Unless the sinner be dissatisfied with himself, detest his manner of life, and be thoroughly grieved from an apprehension of sin, he will never take himself to the Lord . . . no one can return to the right way, but the man who hates his sin." John Calvin

“We are never more precious in God's eyes than when we are lepers in our own.” Thomas Watson

“Life-giving sorrow infuses you with zeal to restore every single relationship that has been broken. Your sorrow leads you either deeper inside yourself or toward God and others.” Heath Lambert

“Doing what is right and just doesn't always make life more comfortable for you. An immediate and critical test for whether your sorrow is godly or worldly is whether you are willing to accept the consequences of your sin.” Heath Lambert

"Repentance is not something God demands from you before He will take you back and which He could let you off if He chose; it is simply a description of what going back is like." C S Lewis

"Without restitution, no remission" Augustine

“Where there is no observable difference in conduct, there can be no confidence that repentance has taken place.” John MacArthur

“The repentance that Christ requires of his people consists in a settled refusal to set any limits to the claims which he may make on their lives.” J I Packer

“When a person caught in sin is walking through the process of repentance, they will want to have other trusted Christian friends help them in the process. They will see their need for guidance and input for their decisions. The repentant person seeks advice and accountability and then, here's the kicker, they submit themselves to it. They readily do this because they know their heart's propensity to self-deceive (Prov. 12:15).” Chris O'Donnell

“For every look you take at yourself, take ten at Jesus Christ.” Robert M. M'Cheyne

“The prodigal son was resolved to come, yet he was half afraid. But we read that his father ran. Slow are the steps of repentance, but swift are the feet of forgiveness. God can run where we can scarcely limp, and if we are limping toward him, he will run toward us. Though the father was out of breath, he was not out of love.”

Charles Spurgeon

“When our Lord and Master Jesus Christ said, ‘Repent,’ he willed the entire life of believers to be one of repentance.” First of Martin Luther's 95 Theses.
