

“... For the Father is seeking such people to worship that.” (John 4:23)

To be bounded by God’s regular to form of worship places the believer in the position of honoring God and being drawn into abiding fellowship with Him.

1. Many in the church today do not understand the necessity regular to worship. (The Problem)

3 real barriers to biblical worship

- an unclear understanding of who Jesus is
- an unclear understanding of who can worship
- an unclear understanding of what worship really is really is

2. God Himself has determined what worship is and what he will accept as worship. (The Correction)

a God has revealed to us that worship is the exultation of our Covenant relationship with him.

b. God has revealed to us that ONLY those who are in Covenant with him may worship.

c. God has revealed to us that worship MUST be founded upon the atoning sacrifice of the Lord Jesus.

3. If we desire to receive God’s blessing, we MUST worship Him as He has required. (The Follow-Through)
