What the Bible Teaches About

Wise Management of Our Time

1. The time we have on earth is a limited, finite resource.
Psa. 90 encourages us to evaluate how we will spend that time.

Psa. 90:10, “The days of our lives are seventy years; And if by reason of strength they are eighty years, yet their boast is only labor and sorrow; For it is soon cut off, and we fly away.

Psa. 90:11, “Who knows the power of Your anger? For as the fear of You, so is Your wrath.

Psa. 90:12, “So teach us to number our days, that we may gain a heart of wisdom.”

2. We must evaluate our priorities.

Matt. 6:33, “But seek first the kingdom of God and His righteousness, and all these things shall be added to you.”

2. We must evaluate our priorities.

Matt. 6:33, “But seek first the kingdom of God and His righteousness, and all these things shall be added to you.”

Priorities

Luke 2:52, “And Jesus increased in wisdom and stature, and in favor with God and men.”

Wisdom: skillful living based on the Word of God.

Stature: physical growth, nourishment, exercise.

Favor with God: spiritual life.

And men: marriage, family, friends, other believers.

3. Mark out your days and times.

God: reading, memorizing, internalizing, prayer, application

Family: time with spouses, children

Work: comprises most of our time

Recreation, exercise

Education
