

C.A.R.E. Group Questions 2/2/20

1. Why is an accurate view of ourselves, as fallen men and women, essential to our understanding of God, sin, and salvation? What happens if our view of ourselves is unbiblical?
2. Why is the concept of a “jealous God” challenging to our modern mindset? Why is it important to correctly understand this quality of God?
3. Joshua commands Israel to “put away” their foreign gods and “incline” their hearts to the Lord. How might we communicate this same process in New Testament terms?
4. Does the church do enough to emphasize the commitment involved in following Christ?
5. What does the Abimelech narrative in Judges 9 teach us about our own potential flaws and weaknesses? Are there modern covenant “stones” in the church that have been redefined over the years?
