MARK 1:29-34; SUPPORT SCRIPTURE

I. WHAT THE LORD JESUS CHRIST, SON OF GOD, BRINGS TO THE SYNAGOGUE

- A. God is present making the synagogue holy; God with us; He is a part of them; identified with them
- B. He brings transcendence proving the holy
  1. The Eternal Word speaks the word of God with divine authority
  2. The sovereign commands spirits and they obey
  3. He brought the genuine and authentic to them
- C. This is the surprising revelation of God; He brought revealed awareness to dull, lost, needy people
- D. The need for this presence of God
  1. Without this awareness, we are dull, boring, lifeless and self-centered
  2. Without this awareness, we have no answers only partially-true opinions; truth, morality and beauty are missing
  3. Without this awareness, there is no hope
  4. Without this awareness, authoritarian oppression is only a breath away
  5. Without this awareness, there is no revelation
- E. He brings a lesson in His power and authority as God: the foundation of faith/trust
  1. They must learn to trust Him
  2. Trusting Him is knowing Him; knowing Him is eternal life; eternal life is union with Him

- II. WHAT THE LORD JESUS CHRIST, SON OF GOD, BRINGS TO SIMON'S HOME AND THE VILLAGE
- A. It is still the Sabbath; He is only changing locations
  - B. Healing of a fever; The LORD who heals us is bringing mercy, wellness and renewal
  - C. Service to Christ and those who follow Him; renewed strength and wholeness
  - D. After the Sabbath, the whole village comes to seek from Him relief from their burdens; He brings the compassion of God, mercy, healing, love, release
- III. WHAT THE LORD JESUS CHRIST, SON OF GOD, BRINGS TO THE HUMAN HEART
- A. Awe and humility: you are in the presence of God
  - B. Questions: Ask, seek, knock
  - C. Trust to the one who listens, receives and enters
  - D. Forgiveness and identity: Christ's death and resurrection
  - E. Path to fruitful transformation
- IV. HOW WE MAY HAVE WHAT HE IS BRINGING
- A. Humble yourself: If you cannot learn from your creator, you have put your redemption out of reach. He is not your equal, but your LORD.
  - B. Repent of your thoughts of superiority; there is only one God
  - C. Trust Christ: Who He is and What He has done
  - D. Continuing in growing faith, serve Him: pray, give thanks, love His people, listen to Him (in the Scriptures), hang out with His people, worship...
