

The Value of Human Life Genesis 8:20-9:17

Main Point:

Though He destroyed the world by flood, God does care about human life; therefore, value the lives of your fellow man, just as He has valued yours.

1. God cares for human life because He promises never to flood the earth again and gives His blessing upon procreation.
2. God cares for human life because He makes provision for both the sustenance and protection of it.
3. God cares for human life because He sealed all these promises with a covenant.
4. God cares for your human life because He gave His Son to die for you.
5. Like God, value the lives of your fellow man.
