

I. Offering praise (v. 15)

Relevant passages: Lev 7:11–18.

II. Offering good works (v. 16)

III. A well-pleasing offering

Relevant passages: Rom 12:1; Phil 4:18; Heb 11:6.

Application Questions

- Think about your duty to have a lifestyle of praise to God: how can you be more filled with praise for him?
- Do you think of your good works and your sharing with others as an offering to God? How can you offer your time, energy, and talents more fully? Are there areas where you are holding things back for selfish reasons?
- Are you trusting in Christ? If so, do you think of your offerings as acceptable to God because of Christ's offering? How do you think that God views your service to him? Have you reckoned with the end of v. 16?

I. Offering praise (v. 15)

Relevant passages: Lev 7:11–18.

II. Offering good works (v. 16)

III. A well-pleasing offering

Relevant passages: Rom 12:1; Phil 4:18; Heb 11:6.

Application Questions

- Think about your duty to have a lifestyle of praise to God: how can you be more filled with praise for him?
- Do you think of your good works and your sharing with others as an offering to God? How can you offer your time, energy, and talents more fully? Are there areas where you are holding things back for selfish reasons?
- Are you trusting in Christ? If so, do you think of your offerings as acceptable to God because of Christ's offering? How do you think that God views your service to him? Have you reckoned with the end of v. 16?