

Hebrews 11:23-29

-By Faith Moses...

-The seedbed of his faith.

-Going God's way or the world's way.

-Moses disciplining his mind and affections.

-Moses' unreasonable faith of reason.

-The effect of Moses' faith on others.

-The seedbed of his faith

-Acts 7:20 (ESV) At this time Moses was born; and he was beautiful in God's sight. And he was brought up for three months in his father's house,

-Acts 8:1 (ESV) And Saul approved of his execution. And there arose on that day a great persecution against the church in Jerusalem, and they were all scattered throughout the regions of Judea and Samaria, except the apostles.

-Acts 8:4 (ESV) Now those who were scattered went about preaching the word.

-Moses faces the crossroads of going God's way or the world's way.

-Romans 10:9 (ESV) because,
if you confess with your mouth that Jesus is Lord and believe in your heart that God raised him from the dead, you will be saved.

-Luke 14:26 (ESV) “If anyone comes to me and does not hate his own father and mother and wife and children and brothers and sisters, yes, and even his own life, he cannot be my disciple.

-Matthew 12:43-45 (ESV) 43 “When the unclean spirit has gone out of a person, it passes through waterless places seeking rest, but finds none. 44 Then it says, ‘I will return to my house from which I came.’ And when it comes, it finds the house empty, swept, and put in order. 45 Then it goes and brings with it seven other spirits more evil than itself, and they enter and dwell there, and the last state of that person is worse than the first. So also will it be with this evil generation.”

-Moses has disciplined his mind and affections to have an eternal rather than temporal focus.

-Romans 8:18 (ESV) For I consider that the sufferings of this present time are not worth comparing with the glory that is to be revealed to us.

-Philippians 3:7-10 (ESV) 7 But whatever gain I had, I counted as loss for the sake of Christ. 8 Indeed, I count everything as loss because of the surpassing worth of knowing Christ Jesus my Lord. For his sake I have suffered the loss of all things and count them as rubbish, in order that I may gain Christ 9 and be found in him, not having a righteousness of my own that comes from the law, but that which comes through faith in Christ, the righteousness from God that depends on faith-- 10 that I may know him and the power of his resurrection, and may share his sufferings, becoming like him in his death

-Once owned by...

-Matthew 6:20 (ESV) but lay up for yourselves treasures in heaven, where neither moth nor rust destroys and where thieves do not break in and steal.

-Moses' unreasonable faith of reason.

-Exodus 2:14-15 (ESV) 14 He answered, "Who made you a prince and a judge over us? Do you mean to kill me as you killed the Egyptian?" Then Moses was afraid, and thought, "Surely the thing is known." 15 When Pharaoh heard of it, he sought to kill Moses. But Moses fled from Pharaoh and stayed in the land of Midian. And he sat down by a well.

-Hebrews 11:27 (NET) ...for he persevered as though he could see the one who is invisible.

-Hebrews 11:27 (YLT) ...for, as seeing the Invisible One -- he endured;

-2 Corinthians 4:3-11 (ESV) 3 And even if our gospel is veiled, it is veiled to those who are perishing. 4 In their case the god of this world has blinded the minds of the unbelievers, to keep them from seeing the light of the gospel of the glory of Christ, who is the image of God.

-Romans 8:5-8 (ESV) 5 For those who live according to the flesh set their minds on the things of the flesh, but those who live according to the Spirit set their minds on the things of the Spirit. 6 For to set the mind on the flesh is death, but to set the mind on the Spirit is life and peace. 7 For the mind that is set on the flesh is hostile to God, for it does not submit to God's law; indeed, it cannot. 8 Those who are in the flesh cannot please God.
