Dr. John C. Whitcomb is founder, president and professor of Christian Workman Schools of Theology. He and his wife Norma reside in Indianapolis, and enjoy spending time with their 6 children and 17 grandchildren.

Dr. Whitcomb has been a professor of Old Testament and theology for more than 50 years, and is widely recognized as a leading Biblical scholar. He taught at Grace Theological Seminary in Winona Lake, Indiana, from 1951-1990, and gained much recognition for his work on The Genesis Flood, which he co-authored with Dr. Henry Morris in 1961. This book has been credited as one of the major catalysts for the modern Biblical creationism movement.

Among Dr. Whitcomb's other published works are The Early Earth and The World That Perished, and commentaries on Esther and Daniel. Additionally, he has authored six comprehensive Bible charts and a wealth of Biblical and theological articles. Major emphases in his teaching have been Biblical creationism, Old Testament exposition, dispensational theology, premillennial eschatology, and presuppositional apologetics.

Dr. Whitcomb's life and ministry may be summed up in this quotation: "I want to be in the full-time business of finding out what God says and telling as many people as I can."

Dr. Whitcomb maintains an active schedule of ministry, speaking in churches, Bible colleges and seminaries across the United States. Please check www.whitcombministries.org to see if he is scheduled to teach at a location near you.

PRICE LIST

The purpose of Christian Workman Schools of Theology is to enable local churches around the world to take the initiative, under God, in the development of church leaders and church planters, by providing video-taped lectures and syllabi prepared by recognized pastors and theologians and a proposed curriculum of courses leading to certificates, diplomas or degrees. CWST views this as an urgent priority, for the local church is the ultimate God-revealed institution for "teaching them [disciples] to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you" (Matt. 28:20).
