

EXODUS: Out of Egypt to Meet with God

The Sending of a Deliverer

Exodus 3:7-12

PASTOR'S PRAYER

Almighty Father God, you are our Deliverer, our Savior. You see our affliction. You have heard our cries. You know our sufferings. And you have come down in the person of Jesus Christ to dwell with us, to walk with us & to deliver us. O what a very present help Help you are in our times of trouble. Thank you, for gathering us this morning to remind and stir our faith by your Spirit and through your Word. We are vacillating, wavering and uncertain. Our emotions are like waves tossed here and there. Our souls are often weary and unsure and anxious. Jesus, thank you for being our sure and steadfast anchor for our soul our our tossed and turbulent lives and world. Come this morning, Lord, by the power of your Spirit and grant us great and firm and sure confidence in Jesus Christ our Deliverer. Triumph over our hearts of doubt and remind us again of your amazing and abundant compassion for us, your people. Cause us to rest in your presence with fearless faith. And grant us grace that we might honor and glory and revel in your presence as we worship you our God, Savior and Deliverer this morning and forevermore. Amen & Amen.

OUTLINE

1. God's Compassion (vv. 7-8)
2. God's Commission (vv. 9-11)
3. God's Consolation (v. 12)

Central Textual Truth

God's people can trust Moses as God's sent deliverer for His people.

Central Sermon Aim

I want SGBC to trust Christ as our sent Deliverer.