

Pious and Elaborate Treatise Concerning Prayer; and the Answer of Prayer.

By John Brown, of Wamphray.

(Chapter 15-In Whose Name We Should Pray.)

“And whatsoever ye shall ask in my Name, that will I do, that the Father may be glorified in the Son: If ye shall ask anything in my Name I will do it.” John 14:13, 14.

308. What is the third particular in the manner of right prayer?

309. How is this name invoked in this place?

310. What is the first thing that this should bring to remembrance?

311. What is the second thing that this should bring to remembrance?

312. What is the third thing that this should bring to remembrance?

313. What is the fourth thing that this should bring to remembrance? Why is this necessary? To what is He compared?

A. _____

B. _____

C. _____

314. What is the fifth thing that this should bring to remembrance?

315. What is the sixth thing that this should bring to remembrance? What office in particular is viewed herein?

A. _____

B. _____

316. What is the seventh thing that this should bring to remembrance? Why did He take upon Himself the seed of Abraham?

A. _____

B. _____

317. What is the eighth thing that this should bring to remembrance? How can this be?

A. _____

B. _____

318. What is the ninth thing that this should bring to remembrance? In what respect is Jesus inferior to the Father? What has He been given to carry on and finish this work?

A. _____

B. _____

C. _____

319. What is the tenth thing that this should bring to remembrance? Who is the Lord Jesus Christ? Why did those of old pray toward the temple?

A. _____

B. _____

C. _____

320. In what six things does the wonder of love and condescension of God appear in this?

A. _____

B. _____

C. _____

D. _____

E. _____

F. _____

321. How should this commend and endear prayer unto us? How should it encourage us to come?

A. _____

B. _____